Alarm & CCTV Installation Course

Secure Your Future: Join Our Alarm & CCTV Installation Course Today!

COURSE OVERVIEW

This course is designed to provide you with the knowledge and skills required to install and commission Closed Circuit TV (CCTV), install a basic alarm system from the sensors through to the alarm panel and control pad PLUS how to main complex alarm systems including back to base monitoring.

COURSE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- Education – Successful completion of Year 10 or its equivalent (Proof required)

- White Card – A current Construction Induction certificate (NSW WorkCover White Card or equivalent from another State or Territory) (proof required)

- Language, Literacy and numeracy skills – A practical applied level of English and mathematics suitable for study of theory units.

DURATION AND STRUCTURE

This course is delivered through a blended setup and is conducted in person, spanning up to 2 weeks. Your participation will involve attending the face-to-face session for a minimum of 16 hours, spread out over 4 nights scheduled from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM.

During the course, you'll collaborate in small groups as well as work individually. To demonstrate competency, you'll undertake a range of assessments. These assessments encompass short-answer questions and Practical Activities.

POTENTIAL JOB ROLES

- Security Systems Installer
- CCTV Installer
- Security Equipment Specialist

COURSE UNIT

This course constitutes 3 units of competency, listed below. Upon completion, you will be awarded a nationally accredited Statement of Attainment.

- CPPSEC2021 – Install security equipment and systems

- CPPSEC2026 – Perform routine maintenance on security equipment and systems

- CPPSEC2023 – Install video surveillance systems and equipment

The course encompasses the following topics:

Alarm Installation

- Identifying and documenting security requirements
- Presenting specifications and configurations in line with client needs
- Programming security equipment and systems Installing security systems and equipment, including testing and fault-finding
- Commissioning and decommissioning security equipment and systems
- Preparing for, carrying out, and completing routine maintenance
- Coordinating the delivery of high-quality security services to clients, including estimates and quotes

CCTV Installation

- Planning and coordinating installation of security equipment and systems
- Installing CCTV and audio systems
- Conducting diagnosis of faults
- Carrying out maintenance activities
- Carrying out service activities on security equipment and systems
- Adhering to and supporting OHS and risk control procedures

COURSE FEES

ALARM INSTALLATION	$ 900
CCTV INSTALLATION	$ 700
ALARM + CCTV INSTALLATION COURSE COMBINED	$ 1500

Please note: The installation of these types of security systems are subject to regulation in certain Australian States and Territories. For information regarding your licensing and regulatory obligations, kindly get in touch with the relevant Work Health and Safety Regulatory Authority at the National or State/Territory level. You can also consult the Australian Security Industry Association (ASIAL)'s website for further details.

02 9773 6029
Mon to Fri: 0930am-5:30pm
4/9 Mavis street, Revesby NSW 2212
info@electricalcollege.edu.au
www.electricalcollege.edu.au

ELECTRICAL TRADES COLLEGE
RTO: 45347